

WDT Institutional Learning Outcome	Program Learning Outcomes
Critical Thinking	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Apply critical thinking skills by identifying accurate documentation, abstracting information pertaining to diagnosis and medical procedures and evaluating documentation to create an accurate billable service.
Technical Knowledge and Skills	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demonstrate coding and billing technology skills by referencing third party websites for eligibility and pre-authorization, abstracting information from practice management records systems, and preparing claims utilizing coding/encoder systems.
Communication	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demonstrate professional communication skills by using clear verbal and written communication, applying effective listening skills and educating health providers and staff regarding Health Information.
Professionalism	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Model professionalism by applying current coding guidelines and regulations to coding practices, demonstrating ethical behavior and identifying requirements for continuing education.